The Future of Sociology
Understanding the Transformations of the Social

Peter Wagner

Monday 8 June, 11:00 am

Facoltà di Sociologia
Trento, Via Verdi 26, sala riunioni al secondo piano

First of a series of monthly seminars on current problématiques of social research, organized by a group of research fellows holding a post-doctoral PAT scholarship in the Department of Sociology, University of Trento. The seminars will focus on-going research, which will be related to wider issues of social theory, methodology, as well as empirical research outcomes. The majority of seminars will be held by the fellows. On a number of occasions guest speakers will be invited to speak on their work. On all occasions, one or more post-docs will act as discussants.
