Subject: VERY URGENT: Cancellation of CCA meeting scheduled for tomorrow, Thursday 16 September 2010

Dear Sir,

I refer to my e-mail of 3 September last inviting you to an interview with the CCA in Brussels tomorrow, Thursday 16 September.

Due to unforeseen and urgent circumstances one of the panel members is unavailable tomorrow. I, therefore, regret having to inform you that the interview for the selection procedure for the post of Principal Adviser in Directorate-General Research, Director Designate of the European Research Council Executive Agency (ERCEA) is cancelled.

A new date still having to be determined, we will contact you again soonest.

Please note that if you already paid for a plane ticket and your travel agency cannot fully reimburse you for the costs made, the European Commission will reimburse the amount that you were not able to recuperate from the travel agency. If this would be the case you would have to fill out a reimbursement form for this particular plane ticket and add a letter from your travel agency stating what amount has not been reimbursed. You can send the documents to me and I will transmit them to the colleague responsible.

I do apologise for the inconvenience this message will certainly cause you.
I would like to ask you to confirm me that you received this message correctly.
Regards,

Marielle Dam
