

European University Institute

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY AND CIVILIZATION

EUI History of Science

Thinking Sciences at Large

Towards a Connected History of Science

convened by Stéphane Van Damme in collaboration with the Working Group on the History of Science

6 February

Dagmar Schäfer
Max Planck Institute, Berlin
'Ming China disintegrated.
The chances and pitfalls of the global view'

9 February

Antonella Romano
EHESS, Paris
'Putting the globe in print:
a 16th century European perspective, its processes,
actors and challenges'

14 February

Bruno Latour
SciencesPo, Paris
'How to represent conflicts on the politics of nature?'

23 February

Paolo Galluzzi
Museo Galileo, Florence
'Digital Humanities for the history of science and technology and the promotion of scientific heritage'

13 March

Bert de Munck
University of Antwerp Useful knowledge and the urban imaginary: a contested history'

5 May

Masterclass with the ENS Lyon on 'Corpus'
Daniel Roche
Collège de France

30 May

Hélène Mialet
York University, Canada
'The thinking person disease:
Rethinking the subject in the digital age'

22 June

Jessica Riskin
Stanford University
'Restless Clock'

26 June

'Collecting the World:
Forum on Hans Sloane'
James Delbourgo
Rutgers University
Simon Schaffer
Cambridge University

For complete information on times and venues, please check the EUI events calendar.