

EUI Junior Scholars Workshop 2019
Challenges of Global Private Law

Wednesday, 4th December

Venue: Sala del Camino, Villa Salviati, European University Institute

09:00 - 9:15 - Welcome and introductions

9:15 - 10:30 - Keynote speaker

Prof. Daniel Markovits (Yale University), Promise Made Pure

10:30 - 11:00 - Coffee break

11:00 - 12:30 - Contract law

Mirthe Jiwa (University of Amsterdam), 'If form matters and matter forms'. A note on the dialectic of materialisation

Szymon Osmola (EUI), Many Dimensions of Justice in Contract Law

12:30 - 13:30 - Lunch break (by invitation only) - Sala Mensa

13:30 - 15:00 - Property law

Eva Vermeulen (University of Amsterdam), The basic capability to hold property as a human right

Marco Giraudo (Collegio Carlo Alberto, Turin), On Legal Bubbles. The law and economics of conditional property rights

15:00 - 15:30 - Coffee break

15:30 - 17:00 - Optimal rules

Philip Bender (Max Planck Institute, Munich), Limits on Personalization of Default Rules. A Normative Theory

Evangelia Nissioti (University of Hamburg), Civil Law and Order: What is the optimal legal rule to enforce mediation agreements?

17:00 - 17:30 - Coffee break

17:30 - 19:00 - Private enforcement

Grigoris Bacharis (EUI), Competition Torts and General Torts. The Hidden Differences Behind a Shared Name

Leon Dijkman (EUI), Courts and the patent puzzle: judicial lawmaking in 21st century patent law

20:00 - Dinner @ Ristorante Le Lune - Via San Domenico 36, 50133, Firenze, (by invitation only)

Thursday, 5th December

Venue: Seminar Room 3, Badia Fiesolana, European University Institute

09:30 - 11:00 - Company Law

Tawnee Hill (University of Amsterdam), Company law as a democratising tool for digital platform market-makers

Anna Maria Nowak (EUI), Like a bank, like a start-up, like a brewery? A lesson for company law taken from the stories told by Fintech industry

11:00 - 11:30 - Coffee break

11:30 - 13:00 - Special relationships in private law

Yifat Naftali Ben Zion (Tel Aviv University), Fiduciary Duties of Lawyers: Protecting Economic Interests of Clients or Preserving the Administration of Justice?

Olga Ceran (EUI), Should I Stay or Should I Go? International Child Relocation in the Era of Mobility

13:00 - 14:00 - Lunch break, (by invitation only)- Sala Giuseppe Buonsanti

14:30 - 16:30 Book Launch (Emeroteca - Badia Fiesolana)

Prof. Daniel Markovits (Yale University), "The Meritocracy Trap" (2019).

(hosted by Max Weber Program, co-organized by The Legal and Political Theory Working Group)

