

Webinar

WTO Reform: Suggestions from Recent Research

8 July 2020 @ 14.00 - 15.00

Online: Live-streamed on YouTube

Scientific Organiser:

Bernard Hoekman | Director, Global Economics, Global Governance Programme, European University Institute

Introduction

This webinar will present findings and recommendations for WTO reform, based on a Bertelsmann Stiftung-support research project. Speakers will focus on working practices; dispute settlement; managing subsidy-related spillovers and governance of plurilateral initiatives.

Draft Programme

Chair:

Andreas Esche | Bertelsmann Stiftung

WTO Working Practices

Robert Wolfe | Queens University

Disciplines on Export Subsidies and Guarantees

Kamala Dawar | Sussex University

Plurilateral Cooperation & Subsidy Spillovers

Bernard Hoekman | European University Institute

Dispute Settlement

Petros C. Mavroidis | Columbia Law School

Speakers

Kamala Dawar Sussex University, United Kingdom

Bernard Hoekman European University Institute, Italy

Petros C. Mavroidis Columbia Law School, USA

Robert Wolfe Queen's University, Canada