

Webinar

Book presentation: Visual Methodology in Migration Studies. New Possibilities, Theoretical Implications, and Ethical Questions

27 January 2022

Online / Zoom

Organised by the Migration Working Group (MPC, EUI), Qualifie – Qualitative and Fieldwork Working Group (EUI), and CERC in Migration and Integration (Ryerson University)

Programme

- 16.00 - 16.05 Welcome
- 16.05 - 16.20 Visual methodologies in Migration Studies: introductory remarks by the editors
- 16.20 - 16.30 Franz Buhr | University of Lisbon
Migrants' Mental Maps: Unpacking inhabitants' practical knowledges in Lisbon
- 16.30 - 16.40 Sanderien Verstappen | University of Vienna
Ethnocinematographic Theory. How to develop Migration Theory through ethnographic filmmaking
- 16.40 - 16.50 Karolína Augustová | Aston University
Photovoice as a research tool of the "Game" along the "Balkan Route"
- 16.50 - 17.00 Tina Magazzini | European University Institute
In the eye of the beholder? Minority representation and the Politics of Culture
- 17.00 - 17.15 Alice Massari | CERC, Ryerson University
Discussant
- 17.15 - 18.00 Q&A Session

Speakers

Karolína Augustová	Aston University
Franz Buhr	University of Lisbon
Amandine Desille	University of Bordeaux
Tina Magazzini	European University Institute
Alice Massari	CERC, Ryerson University
Karolina Nikielska-Sekula	Jagiellonian University
Sanderien Verstappen	University of Vienna