N.B.: If you want to partake in the workshop sessions on Friday where researchers can discuss concrete questions about their ongoing oral history or qualitative interviewing projects with our expert guests, we ask you to submit a proposal of max 500 words (a page) about your research.

Please send this exposé by 16 May 2022 the latest to lois.kalb@eui.eu. For compiling this document please:

- Briefly describe your overall project.
- What is your disciplinary background?
- Which kinds of interviews are you planning to do or have you done? E.g. are they group interviews or not? Who are your interviewees? Are they semi-structured interviews or surveys? What are the questions you ask(ed) and which information or what kind of narratives do you hope to generate?
- What are practical issues and questions about your ongoing project that you would like to discuss in the workshop session?
