

Call for Abstracts - PopFest 2022

The 28th Annual Population Postgraduate Conference

26-28 October 2022, Florence

PopFest is an annual Population Studies conference for graduate, postgraduate and PhD students. It is organised by PhD students in order to bring together researchers from different Social Science disciplines such as Demography, Sociology, Social Statistics, Public Health, Social Policy, International Development, Human Geography, Urban and Landscape Planning, Social Anthropology, Gender studies and other related fields, with a focus on Population Studies.

PopFest is an excellent opportunity for postgraduate students to present and discuss their work in front of their peers and to get feedback and ideas from fellow researchers in a supportive international environment.

The conference programme includes renowned keynote speakers in the field of population studies and workshops specifically addressed to postgraduate students. In addition, social events are going to be organized.
