

New approaches on the history of European financial integration: the case of parallel currencies and borrowing capacity

Tuesday 30 May 2023 – Villa Salviati, Sala dei Cuoi

Organiser: Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol

9:30-10:30 Private tools for political goal: European currency unit, private networks and the making of economic and monetary union

Alexis Drach (Université Paris 8) and Aleksandra Komornicka (University of Amsterdam)

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-12:00 Fiscal union and the single currency: the development of the European Economic Community (EEC)'s borrowing capacity, from Rome to Maastricht (1957-1992)

Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (EUI)

Discussants: Ivo Maes (Université Catholique de Louvain and ICHEC Brussels Management School) and Giandomenico Piluso (Università di Torino)

This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme (grant agreement No. 716849)