

Max Weber Programme - Multidisciplinary Research Workshops

The lasting impact of current EU crisis responses: towards sustainable social and economic governance in the EU

20-21 April 2023

Badia Fiesolana, Refectory

Programme

Thursday 20 April 2023

12:00-13:00 Lunch (Badia Canteen, invitation only)

12:30-13:00 Welcoming of participants

13:00-13:15 Opening Remarks Matilde Ceron, European University Institute

13:15-15:00

I. Economic implications of sanctions and supply chain disruptions for the EU

Key note speech: Katrin Kamin, Kiel Institute for the World Economy

Chair: Sonali Chowdhry, European University Institute

Hendrik Mahlkow, Austrian Institute of Economic Research, Navigating the Energy Transition: Exploring Sanctions' Impact on EU Energy Markets and the Path to Renewable Energy Independence

Frauke Steglich, Kiel Centre for Globalisation, Towards resilience and sustainability - Governing global supply chains in times of conflicts

Manfredi Valeriani, Luiss University, EU City Diplomacy and the pandemic: challenges and opportunities for Transnational City Networks

15:00-16:30

II.a EU socio-economic governance and the EU's pandemic responses

Key note speech: Amandine Crespy, ULB, Institut d'Études Européennes (IEE)

Chair: Mario Munta, European University Institute

Flore L. Vanackère, Université de Genève, The European Recovery Plan: paradigm shift or return to conditionality?

Laura Pierret and David Howarth, University of Luxembourg, To play or not to play the 'moral hazard card': Germany and the European Union's response to the Covid-19 crisis

Lauren Leek and Matilde Ceron, European University Institute, The National Recovery and Resilience plans: towards a next generation of fiscal coordination?

16:30-16:45 Coffee Break

16:45-18:15

II.b EU socio-economic governance and the EU's pandemic responses

Chair: Matilde Ceron, European University Institute

Tomasz P. Woźniakowski, University of Wrocław and LUISS University, No borrowing without taxing? Next Generation EU in Light of the American Experience

David Jonas Bokhorst and Jonathan Zeitlin, European University Institute, Governing the EU Resilience and Recovery Facility: Formulating, Implementing, and Monitoring National Plans as an Interactive Multi-Level Process

Federico Bonomi, Luiss University, Explaining changes in EU fiscal regulation after the pandemic: toward a new theoretical framework?

Luís Russo and Anton Hemerijck, European University Institute, Sweet are the uses of adversity': the consolidation of political support for supranational solidarity and the European polity in the aftermath of European crises from 2018 to 2022

18:15-18:30 Closing Remarks Johanna Breuer, European University Institute

18:30-19:30 Refreshment (in front of Refectory)

20:00 Conference Dinner (Cicchiette, invitation only)

Friday 21 April 2023

10:15-10:45 Welcoming of participants

10:45-11:00 Opening remarks Johanna Breuer, European University Institute

11:00-13:00 Roundtable The lasting impact of current EU crisis responses: towards sustainable social and economic governance in the EU?

Amandine Crespy, ULB, Institut d'Études Européennes (IEE),

Lucia Quaglia, Università di Bologna

Jonathan Zeitlin, University of Amsterdam and European University Institute

George Papaconstantinou, European University Institute

Chairs: Matilde Ceron and Mario Munta, European University Institute

13:00-13:15 Closing remarks Sonali Chowdhry, European University Institute

13:13-13:30 Conclusions

13:30 Lunch (Badia Canteen, invitation only) and Farewell

Organizing committee: Matilde Ceron, Sonali Chowdhry, Mario Munta, Anna Peychev and Johanna Lorraine Breuer