

Women and Gender in International Economic History: Methodological Issues and Challenges

European University Institute, Villa Salviati, Sala del Camino

Thursday 22 June 2023

- 10:00-10:10 Welcome and introduction
Johanna Gautier Morin (EUI) and Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (EUI)
- 10:10-11:40 Women and gender in the making of Europe's Economic and Monetary Union: methodological and conceptual issues
Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (EUI)
- 11:10-11:40 Coffee break
- 11:40-12:40 Trade unions, the Comité du personnel and the feminist organisation : between the opportunities and the struggles of women European civil servants in the European Coal and Steel Community's High Authority and the European Commission, 1952-2000
Aude Foucoin (EUI)
- 12:40-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-15:00 Counting on International Organizations: Feminist Economic Thinkers and the Value of Women's Unpaid Work
Maylis Avaro (University of Pennsylvania) and Johanna Gautier Morin (EUI)
- 15:00-16:00 The burden of biography
Elizabeth Banks (EUI)
- 16:00-16:30 Coffee break
- 16:30-18:00 Concluding discussion, initiated by Myriam Piguet (University of Geneva)

Participants:

Maylis Avaro, University of Pennsylvania

Elizabeth Banks, EUI

Aude Foucoin, EUI

Johanna Gautier Morin, EUI

Emmanuel Murlon-Druol, EUI

Myriam Piguet, University of Geneva