

Open Access Week 2023 Roundtable

Monday 23 October 2023, 11.00-12.30, Badia Fiesolana, Emeroteca and Zoom

Programme

- 11.00 Welcome
Pep Torn, Library Director
- 11.10 Open Access at the EUI in 2023 – Celebrate 20 years of Cadmus, the EUI Research Repository
Lotta Svantesson and Simone Sacchi, Open Science Office, Library
- 11.20 Panel discussion and open conversation on Openness and Transparency in Social Sciences and Humanities research
Panel participants will engage in a discussion, according to their own academic background and experiences, in reply to the following questions:
- > What advice would you give to early career researchers looking to share their research via Open Access?
 - > How would you characterize, from your personal and disciplinary perspective, the benefits of Open Access?
 - > Which would you consider the main challenges for Open Access? Did you have any doubts about publishing in Open Access?
 - > Research data are increasingly included in academic portfolios, listed alongside publications, at times shared openly, certainly cited when possible. From your experience, how is this evolving in your field?

Invited panelists:

Grainne De Burca, Professor, Law Department and Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Constitutional Law.

Sarah Nouwen, Professor of Public International Law, Law Department; co-director of AEL, and Editor-in-Chief of the European Journal of International Law (EJIL)

Benno Gammerl, Professor of History of Gender and Sexuality, HEC

Stefano Guzzini, Professor SPS, Chair in Political and Social Theory and as Swiss Co-chair in Federalism, Democracy and International Governance, former Editor of the Journal of International Relations and Development and of International Theory. Current Associate Editor of Contexto Internacional and of the Book Series Bristol Studies in International Theory.

CADMUS
EUI Research
Repository