

32nd Conference on Postal and Delivery Economics

Participants can choose the appropriate participation fee based on their role (author or audience) and select a meal package according to the number of days they plan to attend the conference.

Kindly note that participants need to book accommodation directly.

The Centre for a Digital Society will offer support by publishing a list of recommended hotels provided at confidential rates (expected date of publication: January 2024).

| Item                                     | Description  | Price (Euros) |
|--|--|---------------|
| Conference fee – paper givers     | This fee is for individuals who are presenting papers at the conference as authors or coauthors.Full-time academic staff is waived the conference fee. | 1.200         |
| Conference fee – general audience | This fee is for individuals who are attending the conference as part of the audience but not presenting papers.  | 1.400         |
| Meals – 3 days                           | This includes lunches, coffee breaks, and dinners for all three days of the conference.  | 380           |
| Meals – 2 days                           | This includes lunches, coffee breaks, and dinners for two days of the conference.  | 280           |
| Meals – 1 day                            | This includes lunches, coffee breaks, and dinners for one day of the conference.   | 140           |